

PRESS RELEASE

Padma Resort Legian Welcomes Lara Frenzel as Executive Pastry Chef

Legian, Bali, October 2018 – Padma Resort Legian is excited to announce the appointment of Lara Frenzel as Executive Pastry Chef. With multiple of experiences across Europe, she believes in elevating the level of visionary to the resort’s patisserie team by bringing her vibrant viewpoint on pastry world and technical expertise.

Chef Lara brings over five years of international experience working for a 5-star hotel in Europe namely Hotel Traube Tonbach in Baiersbronn, Germany as a Sous Chef, honing her skills not only in pastry, cake, and chocolate, but also employee management through leading most of the cooking-classes held by the hotel during her tenure. In the establishing period of her career, Chef Lara was part of a renowned Michellin-starred restaurant in Portugal, Ocean Restaurant when she became Pastry Chef de Party under the famous Chef Hans Neuner.

With the desire to continue her passion in becoming master of pastry, she continues her journey to the tropical island of Bali. "It is such an honour to join the cohesive team at Padma Resort Legian; a perfect place to develop my skills. And since this is my first time working in Asia, I look forward to exploring a wide range of delightful tropical desserts whilst incorporating my knowledge and experience in pastry" Frenzel stated. This laidback pastry chef spends her leisure time reading and catching waves, therefore Bali has successfully won her heart with its tropical lifestyle and plenty of beaches to surf at. With her presence, she looks forward to contributing in the success of resort’s culinary service by incorporating her creativity and passion to reinforce Padma Resort Legian delicate dining experience.
